

SUBMISSION FROM TONY MCANDREW

1. I support this Bill. The problem of autism is profound, and affects a great many families in Scotland. These families have great difficulty in obtaining a diagnosis. The ongoing strain on the family is tremendous. By supporting the Bill the Parliament will be doing something significant. The funding of support should improve and an increasing problem in Scotland will be identified and highlighted by our legislature.

Tony McAndrew
8 October 2010