

WRITTEN SUBMISSION FROM GEORGE AND HEATHER PAUL

Re the Greenhouse gas emissions reduction target-

Targets should be set even higher and should begin as early as possible so that the incremental effect begins to work immediately. To delay radical change makes achievement of the aims unrealistic.

Implementation of the measures needs to be rigorously enforced- this applies to all areas that the Bill covers.

George and Heather Paul