

WRITTEN SUBMISSION FROM SANDY MAIN

The Climate has ALWAYS changed, so if any (supposed ) change which are currently being experienced, may or may not be due to man's activities.

What is undoubtedly true is that there are TOO MANY People on Earth, and with the World Population rising by 220,000 a Day, action is urgently required to bring some redress and relief to a completely overstretched and exhausted World.

Sandy Main